

Public Transport & Interiors rescheduled for June 2013

Debut of Trade Fair for Public Transport & Interiors from 19 to 21 June 2013 in Berlin

Berlin, 16 March 2011 – The debut of the International Trade Fair for Public Transport & Interiors will take place from 19 to 21 June 2013 in Berlin. The recent decision by several international exhibitors not to participate in the first Public Transport & Interiors (PTI), scheduled for June of this year, has led to its postponement and the fair will now take place in two years time.

“We deeply regret the decision of these exhibitors, while at the same time we respect their wishes in the light of current developments“, said Matthias Steckmann, Director at Messe Berlin. “With exhibitors from 18 countries registered to take part, plus an outstanding supporting programme, the signs were already good for the new trade fair this year. We will continue along this path in our preparations for Public Transport & Interiors 2013.“

About Public Transport & Interiors

The new international trade fair Public Transport & Interiors will take place for the first time from 19 to 21 June 2013 in Berlin. It provides an international marketing platform for all the representatives of supply and demand in the field of local and regional public transport and vehicle interiors. Public Transport & Interiors will be supplemented by a specialist supporting programme. The event is organised by Messe Berlin GmbH.
